

Dude, don't leave me hanging!

Testicular Cancer is the most common cancer in men aged 15-44, but can affect men of all ages. A simple, regular self check may help you detect early signs of the disease.

Testicular Cancer is easier to treat if caught early. Check yourself regularly and look out for the warning signs.

For further information visit

www.tartanchecks.org

Cahonas Scotland
Tackling Male Cancer Awareness

Scottish Registered Charity SC040786